

WHAT IS STUDENT-CENTERED LEARNING?

JANUARY 2017

4C's of 21st Century Learning

Critical Thinking

Collaboration

Looking at problems in a new way, linking learning across subjects & disciplines

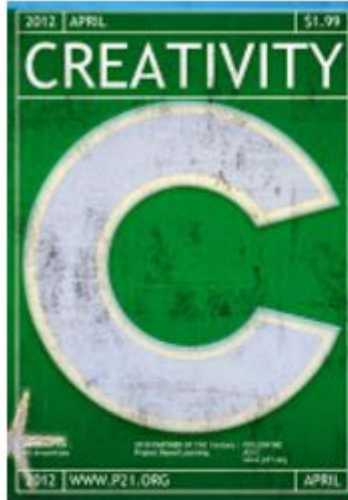

Working together to reach a goal — putting talent, expertise, and smarts to work

4C's of 21st Century Learning

Creativity

Communication

Trying new approaches to get things done
equals innovation &
invention

Sharing thoughts, questions, ideas, and
solutions

10 Signs of the 21st Century Classroom (St-Centered Learning)

Retrieved Jan 2017 from <https://www.edutopia.org/discussion/10-signs-21st-century-classroom>

- *Technology Integration (SMAR)
- *Collaborative Environment
- *Opportunities for Creative Expression
- *Inquiry-based Approach (SOLE)
- *Justification for Answers (Student reasoning)

10 Signs of the 21st Century Classroom (St-Centered Learning)

Retrieved Jan 2017 from <https://www.edutopia.org/discussion/10-signs-21st-century-classroom>

- *Writing for Reflection (Urges metacognition)
- *Use of a Problem-Solving Methodology
- *Hands-on Learning
- *Teacher as Facilitator
- *Transparent Assessment (Diversity in demonstration of knowledge)

ISTE Standards for Students

1998: Learning to use technology

2007: Using technology to learn

2016: Transformative learning with technology

Retrieved Jan 2017 from <https://www.iste.org/standards/standards-for-students-2016>

